

American Progress is an 1872 painting by John Gast. This is used a lot to explain Manifest Destiny. Who and what has not been included in this work?

Where is the US army? What was their role in the west?

Where are the black people? Some were in the west prior to emancipation in 1865. What other groups travelled west?

Where are the Women? What was their role in the West?

Where are the rest of the native peoples in the west? Some are seen (running away) but lots of other images could be used. Trail of Tears, reservations, forced assimilation

Where is the barbed wire? When was this patented? How did this change the west?

Was this just Westward Expansion? What other groups came to the Western US? Why? What problems did they face?

What is happening to the buffalo here?

Look at the types of transport? Can you place them in chronological order of main use

The city seen is New York. Why would this be important for Westward Expansion?

What is happening to the native peoples here?

They are all separate characters? Who could they represent?

What type of agriculture is this? What was its effect on the West?
